THE TIMES.

A. H. CLEMENT EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 25, 1906.

Russell Sage is dead and has left his millions behind him. He was honest in saying that he preferred work to play and he worked successfully to the end. He always had the ready cash for emergencies and knew just how to squeeze the bag and fleece the lamb. He was a member of Congress for two terms and only went there to learn how the better to make money. He cared nothing for the honor. He boasted that no one ever gave him a cent and was not much of a giver himself. Whether or not he laid up treasure in Heaven, we know not. We are not his to judge

Now and then some negro complains of the care furnished them under the operation of the Jim Crow law. Our experience is that the cars allotted to them are just as good as those provided for the whites and are never crowded. These negroes are disposed to boycott some of the roads, and when it comes to this that the white people of this country are not able to support its institutions, why let them go. It would be well however, in the meantime that the negro should learn so as never to forget it, that this is the white man's country.

District Attorney Jerome says that Thaw's millions will have no weight in a court of justice, and that's just as it should be, but the fact that he cut from the social world an eating cancer will weigh heavily in any court of justice. We confess entire ignorance of the ways of "high life" in New York, and if this young man, foolish and reckless as he has been in most things, did'nt have the right to protect his wife against that man White then indeed should the "unwritten Code be re-written.

Ex-Senator Chandler, generally known as the Ex-wasp of the Senate when a member of that body took a delight in prodding Senator Tillman, and had the habit of changing his rest and fireing the interpretations from different parts of the Chamber. This makes Tillman designate him as "grasshopper," to which the uniquitous wasp promptly said, "but you can't catch this grasshopper with your pitch fork." From that time an intimacy sprang up between them which has ripened into real affection.

Mrs. Thaw, Sr. complains that Mrs. Thaw, Jr. got her son in trouble, but the truth is that when the mother violated the will of the dead father, by allowing $80,000 a year of spending money instead of $2,400, the trouble began and grew in fury until the jail doors closed on her boy. A clear case of mistaken maternal love which meant folly.

Three of the most widely read Democratic (?) papers of the State are opposed to Bryan, while the legions of Democrats of the country are earnestly supporting him. The "better-than-those"spirit is abominable and no more repulsive sound ever went up from earth to Heaven than, "I thank thee that I am not as other men."

Even staid old Boston, we mean North Boston and not South Boston has contributed $100,000 to advertise the "Hub" of the universe. Let the counties of Virginia, "watch on" Not only Boston but the large banks are advertising liberally. Printers ink and big P progress go together.

Judge Holt in his decision bearing on the 2-cent rate question simply pronounced against class legislation. The man who only wants to ride five miles should not be made to pay more per mile than the man who wants to ride 500 miles.

The railroads of the State draw first blood in 2-cent rate fight, a Staunton Judge decides against the constitutionality of the act, and now the question arises, will the railroads be permitted to charge 10 cents a mile?

And now the telegraph companies put up a "poor mouth" and say they are making no money. We may next be told that Rockefeller has gone into bankruptcy.

The Republicans of the 5th District have trotted out a "dark horse" in the person of one Dr. Simmons. Governor Swanson will see to it that his "Old Guard" will not surrender.

Richmond has at last reorganized its health department and among her other good things should in the future enjoy the blessings of good health. With all the city's new and princely hotel accomodations it must not suffer from a bad health record. Dr. Levy to the rescue.

There are 1500 F. F. V. folks in Richmond. At least the New York Blue Book says so. How much does it cost to be a F. F. V. in Richmond?

Now that the Virginia editors have rubbed up against the "Hub" their readers may look for sprightlyness intensified and learning oppressive.

They say that money was never so abundant. Send in a dollar for the TIMES. It is not superabundant with us.

W. P. Barksdale, Ex-Senator, from the Halifax District, having "purified" politics has left the ring.

Glass, of Lynchburg, has rung a Bell, of Lynchburg, and we may expect music in the air.

"Lost, strayed or stolen."—Farmville's ice plant.

We don't just understand why so many young white men who ride on our railway cars nowadays should deem it necessary on entering the cars to pull off their coats and roll up their shirt sleeves. There is no necessity in it and not a bit of decency. Leave your vest off wear thin clothing and "behave yourself before folks.

Sheppards.

The many friends of Mr. J. W. Hedditch will be glad to learn that he is recovering from the stroke of apoplexy, which he suffered at Dillwyn. The latest information I have is that he is better, but not out of danger.

Mr. Linwood Anderson, one of the most popular young men of our vicinity, died last week of tuberculosis. Mr. Phil Forbes, also a well-known and popular young man died Saturday of the same dread disease.

The physician who discovers a cure for consumption will be the greatest benefactor the human race has known.

Mrs. J. Wiley Gills has been very ill in the hospital at Lynchburg. A telegrom received tonight from Dr. Gills, states that she is better.

A telegram from Columbus, Miss. dated 8 p. m. was delivered at Buckingham C. H. before 5 p. m. the same afternoon, via the country telephone, and yet there are a few people who say they "would'nt have a phone in their houses."

The many friends of Miss Mary (Kyle) Davis will be distressed to learn that she is quite ill.

Rev. Mr. Hank, presiding Elder of the Farmville district, preached at Smyrna church last Sunday one of the most eloquent and instructive sermons we have had the pleasure of hearing for a long while, although we are blessed with good preachers at all of our churches. Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopal.

"5-DROPS" taken internally, rids the blood of the poisonous matter and acids which cause Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica. Applied externally it affords almost instant relief from pain, while a permanent cure is being effected by purifying the blood, dissolving the poisonous substances and removing it from the system.

DR. S. D. BLAND

Of Riverton, Ga., writes:

"I had been a sufferer for a number of years with Lumbago, which at times left me sore and lame, and acted at the remedies that I could get, but without relief. I finally procured from a friend a sample of the "5-Drops," and found something that gave the relief obtained from no other remedy. I have since used it myself, for rheumatism, with unvarying success."

The Circuit court is now engaged in the trial of Sears for the killing of Harvey after several days work the following jury was sworn Tuesday evening and the evidence will be taken to-day: G. O. Thornhill, H. B. Jennings, C. J. Harding, C. P. Marshall, C. W. Mitchell, R. G. Harvey, W. D. Sandidge, B. D. Puryear, B. T. Jamerson, Allen O'Brien, W. T. Johnson, C. H. Ferguson. If nothing unforeseen happens the case will be argued Thursday, but we expect it to go over to Friday. Messrs. Thomas Watkins and A. E. Strode, appear for the commonwealth and Mr. Flood represents the accused. In the cases of James Hancock and Ed. Hancock charged with having the stable and contents of Silvia Marshall the jury gave James Hancock three years in the penitentiary. The case against Ed. Hancock was dismissed. Mr. Flood represented the defense and Mr. Ferguson the Commonwealth. The judge will hardly be able to get away before Saturday morning.

The morning hour of the court was taken up with the unveiling exercises of a handsome picture of the late Thomas S. Bocock, which his widow, Mrs. Annie H. Bocock presented to the county. She did this at the suggestion of this paper. Judge Hundley presented the picture in choice speech; his references to his departed friend bought tears to the eyes of some. Mr. Flood accepted the picture for the county and went into Mr. Bocock's eventful life and delivered an extensive eulogy. Messrs. Peers, Ferguson and Fleshman made short addresses. Little Ann and Charles Reynolds, grandchildren of Mr. Bocock pulled the veil. Many relatives from a distance and a large crowd of Mr. Bocock's old Appomatox and Buckingham friends were present. The picture is a handsome oil pa nting and is a splendid likeness of Mr. Bocock.

"I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Marion Lee of Dunreath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." L. E. Smith, Appomattox, W. B. Woodson, Concord; W. C Nowlin, Spout Springs.

Mr. Bryan expresses a willingness to welcome all former boarders back into the Democratic party "were-after in the neighborhood that McFadden had" if they will but say the word. Then Mr. Bryan will be ready to welcome them to the White House.
